“Warrior-Family Symposium (WFS) Program & “Ready to Serve” Mental Health Study

Agenda
Friday, April 10, 2015
The Chicago School (TCS) of Professional Psychology, 1015 15th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20005

8:45       Continental Breakfast

9:00 – 9:10  Welcome/Introductions, René A. Campos, CDR, USN-Ret., Deputy Director, Government Relations, MOAA
  • Opening/Administrative Remarks
    o Lauren Friedman, Academic Affairs Manager, TCS
    o Mike Hayden, Col, USAF-Ret., Director, Government Relations, MOAA
    o Paul Richardson, Senior VP Contract Operations, Zeiders Enterprises, Inc.
    o Administrative Remarks, René Campos

9:10 – 9:35  Overview
  • 2015 WFS Program, René Campos
  • RAND “Ready to Serve: Community-Based Provider Capacity to Deliver Culturally Competent, Quality Mental Health Care to Veterans and Their Families” Report, Terri Tanielian
  • Brainstorming Work Group Formation/Instructions, René Campos

9:35 – 10:20 Breakout Brainstorming Work Groups—WFS Content Discussion Questions
  • What specific ‘take-away’ questions should speakers/panels address?
  • Who would be the ‘best qualified’ panelists and/or recognizable subject-matter-expert participants?

10:20 – 10:50 Breakout Brainstorming Group 1—Presentation & Open Forum Discussion
  • WFS Panel 1—Connecting for Prevention: Impacting Mental Wellness
  How has the government ‘moved the needle’ forward in improving the well-being and care for our military, veterans, their families, and caregivers on a range of topics such as mental-behavioral health, suicide, sexual trauma, and substance abuse?
Breakout Brainstorming Group 2—Presentation & Open Forum Discussion
- WFS Panel 2—Transitioning Nation: Our Response on Mental Wellness
  How, and what do we collectively, as a Nation, need to do to further deliver on quality mental health care for warrior-family needs within the next 5 years?

Additional Program Thoughts or Ideas (i.e., Call To Action, Celebrities, Moderators), René Campos

Meeting Wrap-up and Closing Remarks, René Campos